Right to Know and Data Portability Requests

You have the right to request that we disclose certain information to you about our collection and use of your personal information (the "right to know"), including the specific pieces of personal information we have collected about you (a "data portability request"). You may exercise your right to know twice in any 12-month period. Once we receive your request and confirm your identity (see How to Exercise Your Rights), we will disclose to you:

- The categories of:
 - personal information we collected about you; and
 - sources from which we collected your personal information.
- The business or commercial purpose for collecting your personal information and, if applicable, selling or sharing your personal information.

You have the right to request that we delete any of your personal information that we collected from you and retained, subject to certain exceptions and limitations (the "right to delete"). We will also notify our service providers to take appropriate action.

You also have the right to request correction of personal information we maintain about you that you believe is inaccurate (the "right to correct"). We may require you to provide documentation, if needed, to confirm your identity and support your claim that the information is inaccurate. Unless an exception applies, we will correct personal information that our review determines is inaccurate and notify our service providers to take appropriate action.

Right to Limit Sensitive Personal Information Use and Disclosure to Permitted SPI Purposes

You have a right to ask businesses that use or disclose your sensitive personal information to limit those actions to just the CCPA's Permitted SPI Purposes (the "right to limit"). For more on the Permitted SPI Purposes, see Sensitive Personal Information.

Personal Information Sales or Sharing Opt-Out and Opt-In Rights

You have the right to request that businesses stop sharing your personal information at any time (the "right to opt-out"), including through a user-enabled opt-out preference signal. Similarly, the CCPA prohibits businesses from selling or sharing the personal information of consumers the business actually knows are under 16 years old without first obtaining consent from consumers who are between 13 and 15 years old or the consumer's parent or guardian for consumers under age 13 (the "right to opt-in").

Right to Non-Discrimination

You have the right not to be discriminated or retaliated against for exercising any of your privacy rights under the CCPA.

How to Exercise Your Rights

To exercise the rights to know (including data portability), delete, or correct described above, please submit a verifiable request to us by emailing us at support@henrybuilt.com.
